

Department of Journalism and Mass Communication

Affiliated to Sri Dev Suman Uttarakhand University, the Department of Journalism & Mass Communication in Dharmanand Uniyal Govt. Degree College is established under the aegis of Higher Education Department, Uttarakhand in the hilly rural area of Narendranagar in the year 2017.

Since its inception, the department's effort is to serve to the weaker sections of the society. With keeping in view the need for professional education, the department is established to infuse employable skills in the youth from the lower strata.

Being the single higher education department of the state government, the thrust is to develop it as a center of excellence. The Department focuses to cater to the various core fields notably communications, advertising & public relations, television, radio etc. The students are encouraged to take up media and communication jobs as well as to aspire for masters and further higher studies and skills.

At present Honours Degree Program entitled B.A (Honours) in Journalism & Mass Communication is offered to the students. Spread over 6 semesters in 3 years, various subjects and aspects related to print, broadcast and internet based new media are taught to give the students a firm theoretical back-grounding.

Attention is equally paid to give the students the exposure and hands on to the practical aspects. The department has a well-equipped laboratory with various instruments like still cameras and camcorders etc. The department plans to introduce diploma and masters programs to fulfill the needs of higher education of the aspiring students.

Range of Activities of the Department

